

Butcher's Picnic schedule of events
Sunday 28 March 2010

- 10.00am Meet the National Sausage Kings, winners of the Australian championships, and try samples of their winning sausages.
Sausage making demonstrations and a chance to buy some gourmet sausages.
Test your senses in the blind tasting competition.
- 10.30am Watch the battles as apprentice butchers race the clock to bone and cook a leg of hogget
- 11.00am Sausage filling and tying demonstrations begin (these will continue throughout the day)
- 11.30am Hogget Home-Cook of the Year – six teams of home-chefs battle it out for the crown in a 30 minute, high pressure cook-off, with celebrity judges Masterchef finalist, Julia Jenkins and Margaret Johnson
- 12-12.25 World record attempt for a photograph of the largest number of butchers in stripped aprons
- 12.30pm Arrival of the Lord Mayoress for lunch in the VIP area
- 1:00-1:30pm State Final of the Butcher's Beef Burger Competition.
This year, for the first time ever, the butchers will cook their own entries and present them to the judges in buns with their recommendation of condiments and trimmings

Ongoing activities, tastings and demonstrations. Meet the people from Cambray Cheese, Chilli and Spice, Vino Foods, Cape Farm Shop, 3 Drops Olive oil and A Bit On The Side, New Norcia Bakehouse, and Slow Food Perth and sample their wares.
- 1.45pm Lord Mayor's speech and announcement of winners
- 2.15pm Lord Mayor is finished with official duties.
- 3.00pm Event finishes
